Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, estimates and assumptions that involve a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, and are not guarantees of future results. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in such statements and, therefore, you should not place undue reliance on any such statements and caution must be exercised in relying on forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, the following: the impact on drilling and production by factors beyond our control, including the demand for natural gas, NGLs, refined products and crude oil; producers' desire and ability to drill and obtain necessary permits; regulatory compliance; reserve performance; and capacity constraints and/or shut downs on the pipelines that transport crude oil, natural gas, NGLs, and refined products from producing areas and our facilities; the impact of unfavorable economic and market conditions, inflationary pressures, which may increase our capital expenditures and operating costs, raise the cost of capital or depress economic growth; the economic or other impact of announced or future tariffs, including inflationary impacts; the impact of the volatility of natural gas, NGL, refined products and crude oil prices on our earnings and cash flows, which is impacted by a variety of factors beyond our control, including international terrorism and conflicts and geopolitical instability (including instability in the Middle East and Venezuela); the impact of reduced volatility in energy prices or new government regulations that could discourage our storage customers from holding positions in refined products, crude oil and natural gas; our dependence on producers, gathering systems, refineries and pipelines owned and operated by others and the impact of any closures, interruptions or reduced activity levels at these facilities; the impact of scrutiny and conflicting stakeholder expectations regarding ESG issues, including climate change, and risks associated with the physical and financial impacts of climate change; risks associated with operational hazards and unforeseen interruptions at our operations; the inability of insurance proceeds to cover all liabilities or incurred costs and losses, or lost earnings, resulting from a loss; the risk of increased costs for insurance premiums or less favorable coverage; exposure to construction risk and supply risks if adequate natural gas, NGL, refined products and crude oil supply is unavailable upon completion of facilities; the accuracy of estimates of hydrocarbon reserves, which could result in lower than anticipated volumes; our lack of ownership over all of the land on which our property is located and certain of our facilities and equipment; the impact of changes in estimation, type of commodity and other factors on our measurement adjustments; excess capacity on our pipelines, processing, fractionation, terminal and storage assets; risks associated with the period of time our assets have been in service; our partial reliance on cash distributions from our unconsolidated affiliates on our operating cash flows; our ability to cause our joint ventures to take or not take certain actions unless some or all of our joint-venture participants agree; our reliance on others to construct and/or operate certain joint-venture assets and to provide other services; our ability to use net operating losses and certain tax attributes; increased regulation of exploration and production activities, including hydraulic fracturing, well setbacks and disposal of wastewater; impacts of regulatory oversight and potential penalties on our business; risks associated with the rate regulation, challenges or changes, which may reduce the amount of cash we generate; the impact of our gas liquids blending activities, which subject us to federal regulations that govern renewable fuel requirements in the U.S.; incurrence of significant costs to comply with the regulation of greenhouse gas emissions; the impact of federal and state laws and regulations relating to the protection of the environment, public health and safety on our operations, as well as increased litigation and activism challenging oil and gas development as well as changes to and/or increased penalties from the enforcement of laws, regulations and policies; the impact of unforeseen changes in interest rates, debt and equity markets and other external factors over which we have no control; actions by rating agencies concerning our credit; our indebtedness and guarantee obligations could cause adverse consequences, including making us vulnerable to general adverse economic and industry conditions, limiting our ability to borrow additional funds and placing us at competitive disadvantages compared with our competitors that have less debt; an event of default may require us to offer to repurchase certain of our or ONEOK Partners' senior notes or may impair our ability to access capital; the right to receive payments on our outstanding debt securities and subsidiary guarantees is unsecured and effectively subordinated to any future secured indebtedness and any existing and future indebtedness of our subsidiaries that do not guarantee the senior notes;
